Welcome Address

Dear friends and colleagues,

The Orthopaedica Belgica 2014 Autumn Course will be held in the very heart of Brussels on Saturday 29 November 2014. This course has been designed for our trainees and is devoted to bone tumours.

Every orthopaedic surgeon will meet at least one patient with a bone tumour in the course of his career. After chest and liver, bone is the third location in the human body for harboring metastasis. Consequently, having a bone tumour might not be as rare as it is usually presented...

That is why any orthopedic surgeon should know the essentials of bone tumours to be able to give his or her patient appropriate information.

It is the objective of this course to enable the participants to give correct and accurate advice to a patient with a bone tumour, while giving a putative diagnosis is not part of the expectations.

To frame this teaching day, we have invited two distinguished European experts - Prof. A. Taminiau from The Netherlands and Prof. D. Donati from Italy - together with expert Belgian scientists and clinicians to share their clinical expertise.

We sincerely hope to welcome you to this instructive and interesting Course.

Prof. Christian Delloye
